2012 TV Fundraiser Thank-You Gift Photos and Descriptions

$50: AlaskaOne 29th Annual Poster for 2012

“Berry Toss,” by Fairbanks artist Ken Whitten, is a charming photo of a Bohemian Waxwing munching on a fruit tree. With your support at the $50 level, our thank you is this poster which is so much more than art; it demonstrates your commitment to the support of public broadcasting in Alaska.

$125: AlaskaOne Travel Mug

Show your pride in public television with the limited edition AlaskaOne travel mug. This cobalt metallic blue mug holds 18 ounces and will be our thanks to you when you give at the $125 level. Whether you are traveling to the office or trekking to far off places, you'll be reminded AlaskaOne connects you to the world and the world to Alaska.

$250: Pair of Nalgene Bottles

Getting your recommended intake of water is about as easy as getting your recommended daily dose of public broadcasting. Make your gift of support at the $250 level and you'll receive a pair of durable, moss green, authentic Nalgene bottles. Each bottle holds a generous 32 ounces. Quench your thirst for knowledge by supporting your public broadcasting station today.

$365: Sesame Street Gund Characters

For your support at the $365 level, let us thank you with a set of beloved Gund Sesame Street characters. This complete set includes childhood favorites Bert and Ernie, Cookie Monster, Grover, Big Bird and Elmo. Whether you're supporting programming for your children or your grandchildren, you'll know that your gift educates every generation.

$500: Apocalypse Design “Moose” Gear Bag

Our appreciation for your investment in public broadcasting at the $500 level comes in the form of this incredible gear duffle bag. If you are like many Alaskans, you have big coats, big boots, and big dreams...you enjoy year-round activities and could use an all purpose bag like this. This giant 17 X 36 inch durable cordura nylon bag was created by our friends at Apocalypse Design in Fairbanks, with hobbies, activities and our love of public broadcasting in mind.
